The School Song
Floreat Reginae Schola Mariae

The School Song

Words: F.G. Layton Music: J.W. Ivimey

"Floreat Reginae Schola Mariae";
Shout the motto boldly, for her sons are we,
Nurtured in her classrooms in our early youth,
Where we learn to cherish chivalry and truth;
Learn to pull together, each one with the rest,
Playing up and striving just to do his best.

Chorus

This shall be our watchword, "Always play the game!"
Sound the old School's praises, trumpet forth her fame.
Though the seas divide us, we will not forget
That we all are brothers with a common debt.
Let us pay by giving, as we forge ahead,
Service to our living, honour to our dead.

This is what they teach us in the good old School;
"Only by obedience may we learn to rule.
If you fail, look closely, seek the reason why;
Strive and you will conquer, if you only try;
Strive, and bear in mind that each Queen Mary's son
Will rejoice and cheer you when the end is won."

Chorus

This shall be our watchword ...

Present, Past and Future in one mighty whole,
Shining forth emblazoned on one muster roll;
When the call is sounded all must answer "Here!"
Voice and bearing showing neither shame nor fear;
Pointing to our honour, which untarnished stands
Bright as when we took it from our Founders' hands.

Chorus

This shall be our watchword ...

The Governors, Headmaster and Staff of the School welcome you to our

Celebration Evening, 2016

Earlier today, we celebrated the academic achievements of our prize winners. In many ways, their success represents only the tip of the iceberg.
We applaud the individuals who have proved themselves
to be the best in their field;
but also recognise that they have only been able to do so because of the support and generosity of the whole community.

It is that life that we are celebrating this evening - in words, pictures and music.

Thank you for joining us in our celebration.

Introducing Dr Paul Edmondson

Our special guest this evening is Head of Learning and Research at The Shakespeare Birthplace Trust and Honorary Fellow of the University of Birmingham. He has lectured on Shakespeare in France, Germany, Norway, Hungary, Romania, and the United States. And now in Walsall too!

This year marks the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death, an event which has been celebrated around the globe. At Queen Mary's, we are proud to join in the nation's appreciation of a poet and playwright who has had such a profound influence on language, thought and ideas. His work touches on the big stuff - love, death, greed, jealousy, hate - in ways that still instruct and inspire us today.

We look forward to hearing more from Dr Edmondson.
